

NOTES FOR NEW SCOUT PARENTS AND LEADERS
FALL CAMPOUT - SHETEK SCOUT CAMP
November 16-18, 2007

The WEBELOS (soon-to-be New Troop 5 Scouts) are expected to attend the campout at Shetek Scout Camp on the weekend of November 16-18, 2007. A Class I physical form (your Den Leader has the forms) must be given to the Scoutmaster prior to leaving for the event. No Scout can attend unless a Class I physical form is on file with the Scoutmaster.

Details

- C There will need to be at least one Leader attending that is familiar with the new Scouts
- C All sleeping will be indoors - it will be cool (50 degrees at night) but not cold.
- C Bring your Scouts to the Church at about 5:30 pm on Friday night. Feed them before you bring them.
- C Troop leaders will cook supper for leaders per Troop tradition (bring a steak or something for yourself for the griddle. The Troop will supply the taters and such).
- C The evening program is free time - if the weather is nice - Capture the Flag.
- C Scouts will be outdoors all day and most of the evening on Saturday.
- C Scouts will cook Saturday supper outdoors. Troop leaders will provide guidance. This includes the WEBELOS.
- C Parents can pick-up Scouts at the church shortly before or after NOON on Sunday in front of the Library.

Do not forget

- C Sleeping bag - warm enough for the cool temperatures.
- C Cots are recommended for youth - the concrete floor is real hard and real cold. If no cot is available, a pad is needed to provide insulation and comfort. Adults need to bring cots also.
- C Pillow
- C Boots, jacket, mittens, hat appropriate for the anticipated weather - plan (hope) for SNOW.
- C At least one spare set of clothing - from the skin out in case of accidents.
- C Indoor shoes - boots are NOT worn inside the building.
- C Uniform
- C Flashlight
- C Reasonable snacks

Things to leave at home

- C Firearms
- C Fireworks
- C Adult beverages
- C Knives, axes, hatchets, chainsaws, explosives
- C Mess kit - the Troop will supply all necessary items

Call me if you have any questions.

Yours in Scouting,

Tim Kenyon, Scoutmaster, Troop 5
